

MORTEN FRIMAND

Mr. Morten Frimand is currently the Regional Manager – Human Resources Development, Maersk Logistics Middle East.

He has been with the A.P. Moller - Maersk Group since 2001. His background is within the field of human resources, training and organisational development and he has apart from a number of years with Maersk Logistics been with other A.P. Moller – Maersk entities such as Maersk Line and APM Terminals.

Mr. Morten Frimand has been in the role of Middle East HR Manager since August 2008, with the aim of develop and implement strategic HR and to attract, develop and retain talent throughout the region to cater for the demands and requirements for the organisation and clients.

Mr. Morten Frimand has prior to this role been with APM Terminals. Initially in APM Terminal's HQ in The Hague working with senior recruitment and start-up of green and brown field terminals mainly in Europe and Africa and prior to this role with APMT Jordan heading up HR & Training at Aqaba Container Terminal.

Academic Background:

Mr. Morten Frimand has earned a master degree in Sociology and Adult Educational Studies from Roskilde University in Denmark and received specialist logistics training from Ohio State University and Cranfield School of Management.